

People think they know what the village is all about because they come down here every weekend.

Gay people.....

Hen Parties...

All sorts.

Most come in to drink, and dance and have a good time.

But most don't really see what's going on around here.

The village can be a dark place too

Like in the park. At night you can't see anything in there from the outside, the street lights are too bright

But when you're inside.....in the dark

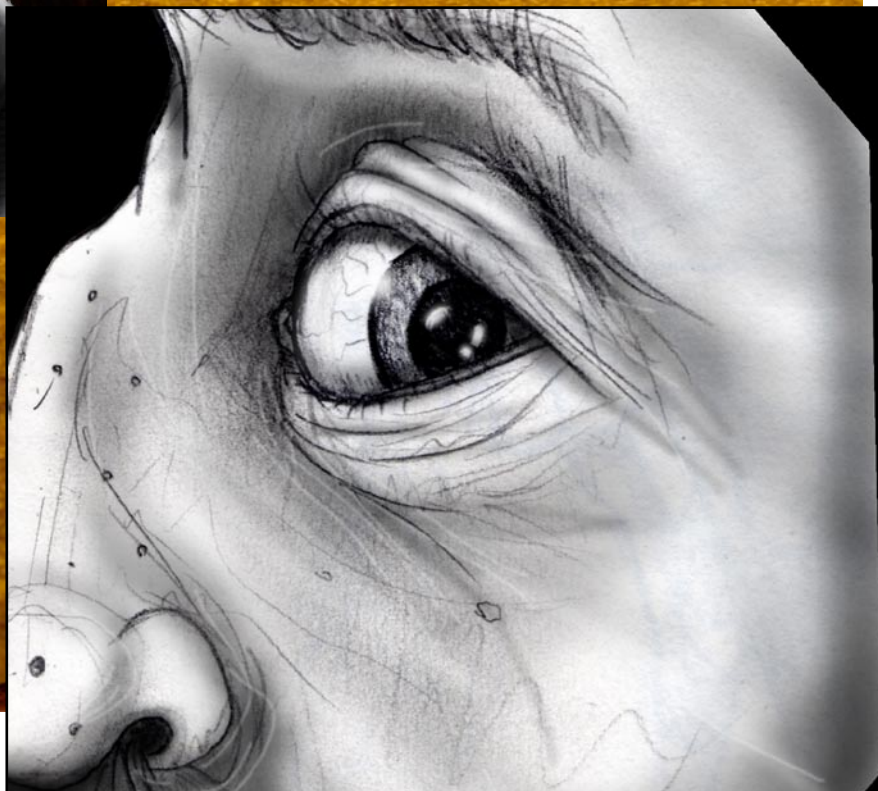

A black and white line drawing of a man with a short, spiky haircut, wearing a light-colored jacket and pants, walking from left to right on a sidewalk at night. The background is a photograph of a street at night with a brick wall, trees, and streetlights.

But there's no point in going in there at night if you're looking for some money...nobody will pay you in there.

you gotta look around

See who's looking back.....
